7. APPROVAL FOR PROPOSED WORK

- 7.1 A Registered Owner shall not without the prior written approval of the Association:
- 7.1.1 erect any building and / or structures of any nature whatsoever on his Erf;
- 7.1.2 make any changes, additions or alterations to existing buildings and/or structures on his Erf, including changes to the external colour scheme;
- 7.1.3 install or fix burglar bars to any external windows or doors of the buildings on his Erf;
- 7.1.4 erect or construct any pergolas, patio awnings, shade ports, carports, washing lines, satellite dish, television, radio or any other type of antennae, wendy houses, walls or any other structures which may affect the external appearance of the improvements on his Erf.
- 7.2 The approval of the Association as contemplated in Clause 7.1 may only be given:

- 7.2.1 after detailed plans of the proposed work as prepared by an architect who has been accredited by the Association, have been submitted to the Association;
 - 7.2.2 if the proposed work complies with the documents and requirements set out in clause 4.1 above;
 - 7.2.3 if the member has made payments of all costs which may be incurred in the obtaining this approval, including any scrutiny fees as determined by the Trustees from time to time;
 - 7.2.4 if the Association has entered into the Environmental Contract with the Council;
 - 7.2.5 if the Member and the Builder have undertaken to comply with the EMPs and have entered into a contract with the Association in this regard;
 - 7.2.6 if the Builder appointed by the Member has been accredited by the Association;
 - 7.2.7 it being recorded however that, notwithstanding the aforesaid, the Association may refuse to grant consent in respect of any of the structures referred to in Clause 7.1.4.
- 7.3 The Trustee Committee shall be entitled to determine a scrutiny fee from time to time, which shall be payable by the Member in respect of the scrutiny and approval of plans by the Association of the proposed work, payable in full to the Association upon first lodgement of any plans relating to the proposed work to the Association.
- 7.4 The Trustee Committee shall be entitled to determine a Sidewalk Deposit and a Builders' Management Fee, payable by a Registered Owner so as to provide for the repairs of damage caused by the Registered Owner's builder as well as for the management and control of the building process on his erf, which deposit and fee shall be payable by the Registered Owner concerned in such amount and on such terms and conditions as may be determined by the Trustee Committee from time to time.
- 7.5 After obtaining the written approval of the Trustees for the proposed work, the Member shall submit the building and landscaping plans (if applicable) to the Council for approval, with the approval of the Trustees evidenced by an endorsement of the relevant plans as well as the payment of any fees payable to the Council for the scrutiny and approval of the plans by the Council.
- 7.6 After obtaining the approval of the Council for the proposed work, the member shall comply with all conditions, standards and requirements imposed by the Council and the Association.

8. LEVIES

- 8.1 Only the owners of Residential Erven shall be jointly liable for expenditure incurred by the Association and as such, no other members shall be liable to pay any levies to the Association.
- 8.2 The Trustee Committee shall from time to time, determine the total amount of levies payable by owners of Residential Erven, as well as the amount of levies payable by each such individual member for the purpose of meeting all the expenses which the Association has incurred, or which the Trustee Committee reasonably anticipates the Association will require in respect of:
- 8.2.1 facilities and services in connection with the Estate including, the Lifestyle Centre and the Croydon Winery (it being recorded that, to the extent that the Company is not in a position to finance the costs of Croydon Winery, such costs shall be borne by the Association who will, in turn, recover such costs from its members, provided however that the portion of the levies to be allocated to the costs of the Croydon Winery shall not exceed 30% of the levy);
- 8.2.2 the payment of all expenses necessarily or reasonably incurred or to be incurred in connection with the management of the Association and its affairs; and the management and operation of the Lifestyle Centre and the Company; and
- 8.2.3 any reserves which the Trustees may deem necessary.
- 8.3 In calculating levies the Trustee Committee shall take into account income, if any, earned by the Association, the Lifestyle Centre and the Company.
- 8.4 A Member shall be liable to pay levies with effect from the first month following the month in which the Member takes transfer of the Residential Erf in his name. The Registered Owner who is the Transferor of the Residential Erf shall accordingly be liable for the payment of levies calculated up to the last day of the month during which the transfer takes place to the Transferee and accordingly shall not be entitled to a refund from the Association of any levies calculated from the date of transfer to the end of the month in which the transfer took place.
- 8.5 The Trustee Committee shall estimate the amount which shall be required by the Association to meet the expenses during each year, together with such estimated deficiency, if any, as shall result from the preceding year, and shall determine a levy payable by the Members equal to or as near as is reasonably practical to such estimated amount. The Trustee Committee may include in such levies an amount to be held in reserve to meet anticipated future expenditure not of an annual nature. Every such levy shall be payable by equal monthly instalments due in advance on the first day of each month and every succeeding month of such year and shall be paid by way of a debit order in favour of the Association or by any other method as determined by the Trustee Committee from time to time.

- 8.6 The Trustee Committee, may from time to time, make special levies upon the Members in respect of all such expenses as are mentioned in Clause 8.2, and such levies may be made in the sum of by such instalments and at such time or times as the Trustee Committee shall think fit.
- 8.7 Any amount due by a Member by way of a levy shall be a debt due by him to the Association. The obligation of a Member to pay a levy shall, subject to the provisions of Clause 8.4 above, cease upon his ceasing to be a Member of the Association, without prejudice to the Association's right to recover arrear levies. No levies paid by a Member shall under any circumstances be repayable by the Association upon his ceasing to be a member. A Member's successor in title to a Residential Erf shall subject to the provisions of Clause 8.4 be liable as from the date upon which he becomes a Member pursuant to the transfer of that erf, to pay the levy attributable to that erf.
- 8.8 Save in respect of a Special Levy, the total levy payable shall be borne jointly by the Members in equal shares.
- 8.9 No Member shall be entitled to any of the privileges of membership unless and until he shall have paid all levies and any other sum (if any) which shall be due and payable to the Association in respect of his membership thereof.
- 8.10 The levies payable by Registered Owners shall be the same in respect of each Residential Erf and as such no distinction will be made with regard to the size of the Residential Erf, the price paid in respect thereof, whether or not it is improved or the extent of any improvements. Where two or more Residential Erven have been consolidated, levies shall be payable in respect of each such Residential Erf as they existed prior to consolidation and as if such consolidation had not occurred.
- 8.11 Arrear levies shall bear interest calculated at 2% above the publicly quoted prime rate of interest as charged by the Association's Bankers from time to time, from due date of payment until the actual payment, calculated monthly in arrears.

9. BREACH

- 9.1 Should any Member:
- 9.1.1 fail to pay on due date any amount due by that Member in terms of this Constitution or any regulation made thereunder and remain in default for more than 7 (seven) days after being notified in writing of such default by the Trustee Committee; or
- 9.1.2 commit any other breach of the provisions of this Constitution or any regulation made thereunder and fail to commence remedying that breach within the period of 7 (seven) days after the receipt of written notice to that effect by the Trustee Committee and complete the remedying of such breach within a reasonable time; then and in either such event, the

Trustee Committee shall be entitled on behalf of the Association, without prejudice to any other rights or remedies which the Trustee Committee of the Association or any other Member may have in law, including the right to claim damages:

- 9.1.3 to institute legal proceedings on behalf of the Association against such Members for payment of such overdue amount or for performance of his obligations in terms of this Constitution or any regulation made thereunder, as the case may be; or
 - 9.1.4 in the case of Clause 9.1.2, to remedy such breach and immediately recover the total costs incurred by the Trustee or the Association in so doing from the Member.
- 9.2 Should the Trustee Committee institute any legal proceedings against any Member pursuant to a breach by the Member of this Constitution or any regulation made thereunder, then without prejudice to any other rights which the Trustee Committee or the Association or any other Member may have in law, the Trustee Committee / Association / Member (as the case may be) shall be entitled to recover from such Defaulting Member all legal costs incurred by it, including attorney and own client charges calculated on the non-litigious tariff recommended by the Law Society of the Cape of Good Hope (or its successors), tracing fees and collection commission.
- 9.3 Without prejudice to all or any of the rights granted to the Trustee Committee of the Association under this Constitution, should any Member fail to pay any amount due by that Member on due date, then such Member shall pay interest thereon calculated at 2% (two percent) above the publicly quoted prime rate of interest charged by the Association's bankers from time to time calculated from the due date of payment until the actual date of payment of such amount. A certificate issued by the Association's bankers as to the prime rate applicable shall constitute prima facie proof thereof.

10. CESSATION OF MEMBERSHIP

No Member ceasing to be a Member of the Association for any reason shall, (nor shall any such Member's executor, curator, trustees or liquidators) have any claim upon or interest in the funds, reserves or other property of the Association or the Company. Without limiting the generality of this Clause, the said Member shall have no claim in respect of any dividends paid by the company of the Association. This clause shall be without prejudice to the rights of the Association to the claim from such Member or his estate any arrears of levies or other sums due from him to the Association at the time of his so ceasing to be a Member.

11. DEALING WITH THE COMMON AREAS

11.1 Neither the whole nor any portion of the Common Areas, or any improvements thereon shall be:

11.1.1 sold, alienated, otherwise disposed of, subdivided or transferred; or

11.1.2 mortgaged; or

11.1.3 subjected to any rights other than those contained in the present existing title deed of the Land, or to be imposed in the title deed(s) of the Common Area as required by any relevant authority or as contained in this Constitution, whether registered in a Deeds Registry or not, of use, occupation or servitude;

Nor shall the vineyards be replaced with any other product, or the operation of the Winery be changed to any other business.

11.2 The Association is hereby empowered to take transfer and shall take title to the Common Areas at no consideration and as soon as is legally possible.

11.3 The Association acknowledges that the Council shall not be responsible for, and the Association shall be solely responsible for the construction, care, repair, maintenance, cleaning, upkeep, improvements and proper control of the Common Areas, all services therein (other than services provided and/or maintained by the Council, if any) and all amenities and improvements located or to be located on or within the Common Areas.

11.4 The Council shall at no time in the future assume ownership of the Common Areas.

12. THE LIFESTYLE CENTRE

12.1 The Association shall have the power to appoint an operator to operate and manage the Lifestyle Centre.

12.2 Members will be entitled to use the Lifestyle Centre on such terms and conditions as the Trustee Committee may prescribe from time to time.

12.3 The Lifestyle Centre will be for the private use of its members. However, the Association is entitled to grant additional membership to persons who are not members so as to ensure the financial sustainability of the Lifestyle centre.

12.4 In the event that a Member should lease his property for a period of not less than 12 (twelve) months, then and in such event the Member's right to use the Lifestyle Centre shall be transferred to the Tenant of the Member's property for the duration of such lease.

13. CROYDON WINERY

- 13.1 The operation of Croydon Winery will be undertaken by the Company for its own account which will have as one of its main objects the production, marketing and sale of the wine to be produced under the exclusive banner of the Estate, as well as the production, marketing and sale of olives.
- 13.2 The direct benefit that each Member will acquire from Croydon Winery, provided that the wine production so allows, is their entitlement to receive 12 six-bottle cases of wine per annum from the Company at no charge, the opportunity of purchasing excess wine so produced by the Company, and also to have access to the Winery and Vineyards upon such terms and conditions as the Company and / or the trustees may decide from time to time.
- 13.3 The indirect benefit that the Members will ultimately acquire from the Company with the Association as its shareholder, is that any dividends declared by the Company to its Shareholder, the Association, which in turn may have the effect of reducing the levies payable by the Members to the Association.
- 13.4 It is recorded however that the Members shall not have any claim of any nature whatsoever in respect of the capital, assets, reserves or profits of the Company. Any dividends declared shall remain vested with the Association for the purpose of covering the current and future costs of the Association.
- 13.5 The Developer shall be entitled to hold a maximum of 4 (four) marketing functions per annum in perpetuity at the Winery upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed between the Developer and the Company and/ or the Association.
- 13.6 The Members acknowledge that they are aware of the fact that the Company will be conducting its business operations upon the Estate and that such operations will include inter alia, ploughing, planting, weeding, picking of grapes and olives, spraying, the manufacture and sale of wine, on week days, weekends and public holidays, which will result in labour activity and industrial noise, and the Members so hereby agree to allow Croydon Winery to so conduct its business without protest or intervention.
- 13.7 The Association shall be entitled to conclude Agreements on behalf of the Company with other Estates, regarding but not limited to the purchase of their grapes, the production and sale of wine, olives or any other matter as the Company may decide.
- 13.8 The Association shall enter into an Agreement of Lease with the Company in terms of which the Association will rent to the Company, who in turn will hire from the Association, the land, buildings and other fixtures and equipment making up and/or comprising of the Winery, inclusive of any outbuildings, vineyards, olive groves, irrigation systems, farming implements and equipment, at a monthly rental of R10 000,00 (Ten Thousand Rand), plus VAT per month, calculated with effect from the date on which the Winery becomes operational, which rental will escalate annually by 8% (Eight per cent) per annum.

14. SERVICES

14.1 With effect from the date upon which the Association is created in terms of clause 3, the obligation to maintain and repair Services (save to the extent that Council has agreed to assume the obligation to maintain and repair any of such services), and for the maintenance, upkeep and operation of the Lifestyle Centre and Croydon Winery, shall pass from the Developer to the Association, subject to the provisions of Clauses 8.2.1 hereof, and subject to the terms of the Lease Agreement referred to in Clause 13.8.

14.2 The Council may, at its discretion, elect to assume the obligation to repair and maintain water, sewage and electricity services ("the Council Services") on the Estate, provided that a written agreement is concluded between the Council and the Association which agreement shall include the following provisions:

14.2.1 the Council Services will be provided to each Member on an individually metered basis;

14.2.2 the Association shall allow the Council's staff 24 (twenty-four) hour access to all elements of the systems on the Estate in respect of the Council Services;

14.2.3 the elements of the systems in respect of Council Services must comply fully with the Council's specifications and requirements;

14.2.4 Council shall, after repairs to systems in respect of Council Services, only be obliged to re-instate roads, verges, footways and the like to such reasonable standards as may be applicable in non-private townships. Any further reinstatements over and above such standard shall be undertaken by the Association at its costs;

14.2.5 the Association indemnifies the Council (or its duly appointed agent) against any responsibility for payment for repairs of any damage to roads, walls, fences, verges and the like which may be caused by the Council's vehicles or staff on the Estate;

14.2.6 full servitude rights of way will be granted by the Association to the staff of the Council, and their vehicles, along all roads and pipeline cables routes for the purpose of inspection, maintenance and repair of the Council Services;

14.2.7 the Common Areas shall be metered and the Association shall be liable for the payment of all costs relating to Council Services.

14.3 The Association shall be responsible for internal collection of refuse on the Estate which shall be removed from the Estate by the Council from a centralised collection point. The cost of the internal refuse collection will be borne by the Association and paid for through the levies.

15. MANAGER

15.1 The Association shall be responsible for the appointment of any managers, it being contemplated that the affairs of the Association shall at all times be entrusted to a professional manager with appropriate executive powers so as to conform to the requirements of good corporate governance.

15.2 Subject to this Constitution and the terms of his employment, the Manager shall have the full power to manage and control the business and affairs of the Association, and may exercise all such powers of the Association and do all acts on behalf of the Association as may be exercised by the Association itself.

15.3 All instructions issued to the Manager by the Association shall be in writing and shall only be issued by the Chairman of the Trustees of the Association. The Manager shall not be required to act upon any instruction received from a member of the Association, other than that of the Trustees and the Chairman.

16. CONTRACTS AND REGULATIONS

16.1 Without limiting the powers referred to in Clause 19 hereof, the Trustee Committee may from time to time:

16.1.1 make regulations governing, inter alia:

16.1.1.1 the Members' rights of use, occupation and enjoyment of the Common Areas;

16.1.1.2 the external appearance of and the maintenance of the Common Areas and the buildings or other improvements erected thereon;

16.1.1.3 the erection of any buildings and/or structures of any nature whatsoever, and the alteration, modification and renovation to such buildings and/or structures on Residential Erven, subject always to the Design Manual and the requirements of the Council;

16.1.1.4 the conduct of Members generally;

16.1.2 enter into agreement(s) with the local authorities governing the matters set out in sub-Clause 16.1 and any other incidental matters;

- 16.1.3 enter into agreement(s) with the Council and other parties for the provision of Services on the Estate, or enter into agreements with other estates as envisaged in Sub-Clause 4.17;
 - 16.1.4 impose penalties which it considers appropriate in its sole discretion against Members who are in default of any of their obligations in the terms of this Constitution, including the terms of payment of such penalties. Without detracting from the generality of the foregoing, the Trustees shall be entitled to impose penalties in the event of a Member not commencing or completing construction of his dwelling as provided in clause 4.2.3
- 16.2 The Association shall enter into an Environmental Contract with the Council, which shall, inter alia, include the following conditions:
- 16.2.1 the Association shall undertake responsibility for the monitoring and enforcement of the EMPs during the construction of the dwellings on the Residential Erven;
 - 16.2.2 the Association shall ensure that each Registered Owner together with his Builder complies with the provisions of the EMPs;
 - 16.2.3 the Association shall ensure that, prior to the construction of dwellings on the Residential Erven, a suitable qualified person is appointed as an Environmental Site Officer to ensure compliance by the Registered Owners and the Builders with the EMPs, the costs whereof shall be borne by the Registered Owner concerned.
- 16.3 Each Member undertakes to the Association that he shall comply with:
- 16.3.1 the provisions of this Constitution;
 - 16.3.2 any regulations made in terms of sub-Clause 16.1.1;
 - 16.3.3 any agreements referred to in sub-Clause 16.1.2 insofar as those agreements either directly or indirectly impose obligations on him.

17. MANAGEMENT AND TRUSTEES

- 17.1 The affairs of the Association shall be managed and controlled by a Board of Trustees (the "Trustee Committee") consisting of 7 (seven) Trustees elected at a general meeting.
- 17.2 All the Trustees, shall after proposal and seconding, be elected by ballot or show of hands (if the meeting so determines) of those members who attend the general meeting of the Association, and successive Trustees shall be elected likewise at each successive annual general meeting of the Association, provided that no member shall be eligible for election unless he shall have been duly nominated and seconded in writing by other members and such written nominations, duly endorsed by the nominee, shall have been handed to the secretary not later than the day preceding the meeting and provided further that such nominee's levies for the current year shall have been paid. Should sufficient nominations not have been received prior to the meeting to ensure a Board of 7 (seven) Trustees, nominations will be accepted from the floor provided that such nomination is seconded at the meeting and accepted by the nominee.

17.3 The Trustee Committee shall consist of a chairman, vice chairman, secretary/treasurer and 4 (four) trustees. The Trustees shall from their ranks select a Chairman and Vice-Chairman. A quorum for any meeting of the Trustee Committee shall consist of 4 (four) trustees. Should a quorum not be formed as aforesaid, the meeting shall stand adjourned until a time to be decided upon by the chairman. All matters at any meeting shall be determined by a majority of those present and voting. In the event of an equality of votes, the chairman of the meeting shall have a casting vote.

17.4 The trustees shall cease to hold office:

17.4.1 at every annual general meeting, but shall be eligible for re-election;

17.4.2 by notice to the Trustee Committee if he resigns his office;

17.4.3 if he is removed from office by the majority vote of the trustees;

17.4.4 if he absents himself from 3 (three) consecutive meetings of the trustees without leave of absence;

17.4.5 upon his Estate being sequestrated, whether provisionally or finally;

17.4.6 upon the commission by him of any act of insolvency; or

17.4.7 upon his conviction of any offence involving dishonesty.

17.5 Vacancies on the Trustee Committee may be filled by co-option at the instance of the majority vote of the Members.

17.6 Trustees shall receive no remuneration, but will be entitled to a refund of reasonably incurred expenses in the execution of their duties.

17.7 No Trustee shall be liable to the Association or any Member thereof or to any other person whomsoever, for any act or omission by himself, the Association or its servants or agents. Every Trustee is indemnified by the Association against loss suffered by him in consequence of any purported liability provided that such Trustee has, upon the basis of information known to him, acted in good faith, without intent and without gross negligence and/or without dishonesty.

17.8 Meetings of the Trustees shall be held as frequently as may be decided by the Trustee Committee, and minutes shall be kept of all meetings and decisions.

17.9 Proper books of account of the administration and finances of the Association shall be kept and financial accounts shall be audited annually by the Auditors.

18. OFFICE OF TRUSTEES

18.1 Subject to clause 17.3, the Trustees shall appoint amongst themselves, a Chairperson and a Vice-Chairperson.

18.2 Subject to clause 17.4 the Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson shall hold their respective offices until the First Annual General Meeting following the date of their appointment, provided that any such office shall ipso facto be vacated by the Trustee holding such office upon his ceasing to be a Trustee for any reason.

18.3 Within 7 (seven) days of the holding of such Annual General Meeting, the Trustee Committee shall meet and shall elect from its own number the Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson, who shall hold their respective offices until the Annual General Meeting held next after their said appointment, provided that the office of the Chairperson or Vice-Chairperson shall ipso facto be vacated by the Trustee holding such office upon ceasing to be a Trustee for any reason. No one Trustee shall be appointed to more than one of the aforesaid offices. In the event of any vacancy occurring in any of the aforesaid offices at any time, the Trustee Committee shall immediately meet to appoint one of their members as a representative in such office.

18.4 Save as otherwise provided herein, the Chairperson shall preside at all meetings of the Trustee Committee, and all general meetings of Members, and shall perform all duties incidental to the office of the Chairperson and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Trustee Committee or of Members, and to allow or refuse to permit invites to speak at any such meetings, provided however, that any such invitees shall not be entitled to vote at any such meetings.

18.5 The Vice-Chairperson shall assume the powers and duties of the Chairpersons in the absence of the Chairperson, or his inability or refusal to act as Chairperson, and shall perform such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to him by the Chairperson or the Trustee Committee.

18.6 Trustees shall be entitled to be repaid all reasonable and bona fide expenses incurred by them respective in connection with the performance of their duties as Trustees and/or Chairperson, Vice-Chairperson, as the case may be, but save as aforesaid, shall not be entitled to any other remuneration fees or salary in respect of the performance of such duties.

19. FUNCTIONS AND POWERS OF THE TRUSTEE COMMITTEE

- 19.1 Subject to the express provisions of this Constitution, the Trustee Committee shall manage and control the business and affairs of the Association, shall have full powers in the management and direction of such business and affairs and, save as may be expressly provided herein, may exercise all such powers of the Association, as are required to be exercised or done by the Association in general meeting, subject nevertheless to such regulation as may be prescribed by the Association in general meeting from time to time, provided that no regulation made by the Association in general meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Trustee Committee which would have been valid if such regulation had not been made.
- 19.2 The Trustee Committee shall have the right to vary, cancel or modify any of its decisions and resolutions from time to time.
- 19.3 The Trustee Committee may, should it so decide, investigate any suspected or alleged breach by any Members or Trustee in such reasonable manner as it shall decide from time to time.
- 19.4 The Trustee Committee may make regulations not inconsistent with this Constitution, or any regulations prescribed in the Association in general meeting:
- 19.4.1 as to disputes generally;
 - 19.4.2 for the furtherance and promotion of any of the objects of the Association;
 - 19.4.3 for the better management of the affairs of the Association;
 - 19.4.4 for the advancement of the interests of Members;
 - 19.4.5 for the conduct of Trustee Committee meetings and general meetings;
 - 19.4.6 to assist it in the administering and governing the Association's activities generally; and shall be entitled to cancel, vary or modify any of the same from time to time.
- 19.5 Save as otherwise provided in the constitution, the trustees shall at all times have the right to engage on behalf of the association, the services of accountants, auditors, attorneys, advocates, architects, engineers, town planners, managing agents, environmental consultants, and any other person or firm and/or any other employee/s whatsoever, for any reason thought necessary by the trustees and on such terms as the trustee shall decide.

- 19.6 The Trustees shall further have the power to:
- 19.6.1 require that any construction of any sort on the Estate shall be supervised to ensure that the provision of this construction and the Estate rules are complied with and that all such construction is performed in a proper and workmanlike manner;
 - 19.6.2 issue architectural and landscape design manuals, environmental management plans and contracts or instructions in respect of the Estate, and to ensure that these documents and instructions are complied with at all times;
 - 19.6.3 determine the criteria for the accreditation of architects, builders, estate agents and other service providers or contractors employed by Registered Owners or the Association.
 - 19.6.4 enter into agreements with other developments located in close proximity to the Estate with regard to the sharing of facilities or services or with a view of sharing the cost of services, including but not being limited to security, landscaping, gardening and agricultural services.
 - 19.6.5 operate the Company and appoint directors to its Board of Directors.
- 19.7 The trustees shall have the right to appoint committees consisting of such number of their members and such outsiders, including a Manager as they deem fit and to delegate to such committees such of their functions, powers and duties as they deem fit, with further power to vary or revoke such appointments and delegations as the trustee may from time to time deem necessary.
- 19.8 The trustees may appoint an architectural review committee to exercise the power set out above in clause 19.7. Members of the architectural review committee shall not be required to be Members of the Association.
- 19.9 Except for any buildings, out-buildings, structures, additions or alterations to be erected or effected by the Developer, on non-residential erven, all plans for buildings, out-buildings, structures, additions and alterations shall be approved by the Trustees or architectural review committee (if so appointed), or any person designated by them for the purpose.
- 19.10 The Trustees shall further have the power to make Estate and/or Conduct Rules in regard to inter alia:
- 19.10.1 the siting of all buildings and improvements on the Erven, the use of motor vehicles and the parking of vehicles, including trucks, caravans, trailers and boats and the use of the roads;
 - 19.10.2 the use of Common Areas, the Croydon Winery, the Lifestyle Centre and the restrictions for the use and enjoyment thereof;

- 19.10.3 the right to prohibit, restrict or control the keeping of any animals which they regard as dangerous or a nuisance;
- 19.10.4 the conduct of any persons within the Estate for the prevention of nuisance of any nature to any member;
- 19.10.5 the use of services, Lifestyle centre, recreational areas, amenities and facilities including the right to charge a reasonable fee for the use thereof;
- 19.10.6 the furtherance and promotion of any of the objects of the Association and / or for the better management of the affairs of the Association and / or for the advancement of the interests of the members and / or the residents of the Estate;
- 19.10.7 the maintenance of all buildings, out buildings, structures, improvements of any nature and landscaping of Erven on the Estate;
- 19.10.8 the control of the number of occupiers permitted on any one Residential Erf;
- 19.10.9 the admission of any person to the Estate, and the eviction of any person not entitled to be thereon;
- 19.10.10 maintenance of Common Areas;
- 19.10.11 refuse disposal;
- 19.10.12 use of waterways, dams and amenities relating thereto;
- 19.10.13 installation of air conditioning units and television and radio antennae and / or satellite dishes;
- 19.10.14 littering;
- 19.10.15 responsibility of the members for the activities of domestic employees and their guests and access of such persons to the Estate;
- 19.10.16 security;
- 19.10.17 letting and re-selling of Erven
- 19.10.18 the imposition of fines and other penalties;
- 19.10.19 the accreditation of Estate agents for sales and re-sales of Residential Erven and the appointment of an on-site Estate Agent or Agents to conduct sales and re-sales;

- 19.10.20 the accreditation of architects in respect of the submission of plans for any works to be conducted on Residential Erven;
- 19.10.21 the accreditation of builders contracted to conduct construction work on Residential Erven;
- 19.10.22 the accreditation of service providers or contractors in respect of work to be conducted on behalf of members or the Association on the Estate.
- 19.10.23 For the enforcement of any of the rules made by the trustees in terms of this clause, or of any of the provisions of this constitution generally, the trustees may:
- 19.10.23.1 give notice to the member concerned requiring him to remedy such breach within such period as the trustees may determine; and / or
 - 19.10.23.2 take or cause to be taken such steps, as they may consider necessary to remedy the breach of the rule or provision of which the member may be guilty, and debit the cost of so doing to the member concerned, which amount shall be deemed to be a debt owing by the member concerned to the Association; and / or
 - 19.10.23.3 take such action including the imposition of a fine, or proceedings in court, as they may deem fit.
- 19.11 Should the trustees institute any legal proceedings against any Members or resident on the Estate for the enforcement of any of the rights of the Association in terms hereof, the Association shall be entitled to recover all legal costs so incurred from the member or resident concerned, calculated as between attorney and own client, including tracing fees and collection commission.
- 19.12 In the event of any breach of the rules by the Members or any Member's household or his guests or lessees, such breach shall be deemed to have been committed by the Member himself, who shall be jointly and severally liable with such wrongdoer to and in favour of the Association. However, without prejudice to the foregoing, the trustees may take or cause to be taken such steps against the person actually committing the breach as they may in their discretion deem fit.
- 19.13 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein contained, the trustees may in the name of the Association enforce the provisions of any rules by criminal action or civil application or action in a court of competent jurisdiction and for this purpose may appoint attorneys and counsel, as they may deem fit.
- 19.14 The Association may in general meeting itself make any rules in regard to any matter and may also vary or modify any rule made by it or by the trustees from time to time.

19.15 The Association shall generally have the power and shall perform the functions so as to implement and evoke the objects of the Association referred to in Clause 4.

20. PROCEEDINGS OF THE TRUSTEE COMMITTEE

20.1 The Trustee committee may meet together for the dispatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit, subject to any provisions hereof.

20.2 Meetings of the Trustee Committee shall be held at least once every quarter, provided that if all the Trustees shall in writing have waived the above requirement in respect of a particular quarter, then no meeting of the Trustee Committee need to be held for that quarter.

20.3 The quorum necessary for the holding of any meeting of the trustee Committee shall be 4 (four).

20.4 The Chairperson shall preside as such at all meetings of the Trustee Committee, provided that should at any meeting of the trustee Committee the Chairperson not be present within 15 (fifteen) minutes after the time appointed for the holding thereof, then the Vice-Chairperson shall act as Chairperson at such meeting, provided further that should the Vice-Chairperson also not be present within 15 (fifteen) minutes of the time appointed for the holding of such meeting, those present of the Trustees shall vote to appoint a Chairperson for the meeting and that Chairperson so appointed shall thereupon exercise all the powers and duties of the Chairperson in relation to such meeting.

20.5 A Trustee shall take minutes of every Trustee Committee meeting, although not necessary verbatim, which minutes shall be reduced to writing without undue delay after the meeting and shall then be certified correct by the Chairperson of the meeting. All minutes of Trustee Committee meetings shall after certification as aforesaid be placed in a Trustee Committee Minute Book to be kept in accordance with the provisions of the law relating to the keeping of minutes of meetings of directors of companies. The Trustee Committee Minutes Book shall be open for inspection at all reasonable times by a Trustee, the Auditors, the Members and Local Authority.

20.6 All resolutions recorded in the minutes of any Trustee Committee meeting shall be valid and of full force and effect as therein recorded, with effect from the passing of such resolutions, and until varied or rescinded, but no resolution or purported resolution of the Trustee Committee shall be of any force or effect, or shall be binding upon the Members or any of the Trustees unless such resolution is competent within the powers of the Trustee Committee.

20.7 Save as otherwise provided herein, the proceedings at any Trustee meeting shall be conducted in such reasonable manner and form as the Chairperson of the meeting shall decide.

20.8 A resolution signed by all the Trustees shall be valid in all respects as if it had been duly passed at a meeting of the Trustee Committee duly convened.

20.9 Resolutions put to the vote at meetings of the trustee Committee shall be carried by a simple majority.

21.10 In the case of an equality of votes, the Chairperson of the Trustee Committee shall have a casting vote.

21. GENERAL MEETINGS OF THE ASSOCIATION

21.1 The Association shall hold a general meeting as its Annual General Meeting, in addition to any other general meetings during the year, as soon as possible after the end of each financial year, it being the intention that each annual General Meeting shall take place within a period not exceeding 9 (nine) months after each financial year in order to allow for the Audited Financial Statements to be finalised. The Association shall specify the meeting as such in the notices, in terms of Clause 22.1 below calling it.

21.2 Such Annual General Meetings shall be held at such time and place, subject to the foregoing provisions, as the Trustee Committee shall decide from time to time.

21.3 All general meetings other than Annual general Meetings shall be called special general meetings.

21.4 Subject to Clause 21.5 the Trustee Committee, may, whenever they think fit, convene a special general meeting.

21.5 Where the members who hold at least 51% of the total votes resolve to call a special meeting, the Trustee Committee shall be obliged to call such meeting.

22. NOTICE OF MEETINGS

22.1 An Annual General Meeting and a meeting called for the passing of a Special Resolution, shall be called by no less than 21 (twenty one) days' notice in writing, and a special general meeting, other than one called for the passing of a Special Resolution, shall be called by no less than 14 (fourteen) days' notice in writing. In each case, the notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is given, and shall specify the place, the day and the hour of the meeting. In the case of a Special Resolution, the said Notice shall specify the terms, the effect of the resolution and the reason for it.

22.2 A general meeting of the Association shall, notwithstanding that it is called by shorter notice than that specified as aforesaid, be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed:

22.2.1 in the case of a meeting called as the Annual General Meeting, by all the Members present and who are entitled to attend and vote thereat; and

22.2.2 in the case of a special general meeting by a majority in number of the Members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority together holding not less than 75% (seventy five percent) of the total number of votes.

22.3 The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting or of any resolution, or to give any other notification, or present any document required to be given or sent in terms of these presents, or the non-receipt of any such notice, notification or document by any Member or other person entitled to receive the same, shall not invalidate the proceedings at, or any resolution passed at, any meeting.

23. VENUE OF MEETINGS

General meetings of the Association shall take place at such place as shall be determined by the Trustee Committee from time to time.

24. QUORUM

24.1 No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to business. The quorum necessary for the holding of any general meeting shall be such of the Members entitled to vote, as together for the time being, represent at least one-half of the total votes of all Members of the Association entitled to vote.

24.2 If within half an hour from the time appointed for the holding of a general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of Members, shall be dissolved, in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same place and time, or at such other place as the Chairperson of the meeting shall appoint, and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the holding the meeting, the Members present shall be a quorum.

25. AGENDA AT MEETINGS

In addition to any other matter that may be required to be dealt with at an Annual General meeting, the following matters shall be dealt with at every Annual General Meeting:

25.1 the Chairperson's report;

25.2 the election of the Trustee Committee;

25.3 the consideration and fixing of the remuneration of the Auditors for the financial year of the Association preceding the Annual General Meeting;

- 25.4 the consideration of the balance sheet and income statement of the association for the last Financial Year of the Association preceding the date of such meeting;
- 25.5 the consideration and approval of the report of the Auditors; and
- 25.6 the consideration of the total Levy, for the calendar year during which such annual general meeting takes place, the total Levy being the sum of all the levies to be collected from members.

26. PROCEDURE AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- 26.1 The Chairperson shall preside as such at all general meetings, provided that should he not be present within 15 (fifteen) minutes after the time appointed for the holding thereof, then the Vice-Chairperson, shall act as Chairperson at such meeting, provided further that should the Vice-Chairperson also not be present within 15 (Fifteen) minutes of the time appointed for the holding of such meeting, then the Members present at such meeting entitled to vote, shall vote to appoint a Chairperson for the meeting, who shall thereupon exercise all the powers and duties of the Chairperson in relation to such meeting.
- 26.2 The Chairperson may, with the consent of any general meeting at which a quorum is present (and if so directed by the meeting) adjourn a meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business which might have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. Whenever a meeting is adjourned for ten days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in the same manner as of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid, the Members shall not be entitled to any notice of adjournment, or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
- 26.3 Except as otherwise set forth herein, all general meetings shall be concluded in accordance with generally accepted practice.

27. PROXIES

- 27.1 A Member may be represented at a general meeting by a proxy, who need not be a Member of the Association. The Proxy shall be entitled to vote at a general meeting on behalf of that Member. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing signed by the Member concerned or his duly authorised agent in writing, but need not be in any particular form, provided that where a Member is more than 1 (one) person, any 1 (one) of those persons may sign the instrument appointing a proxy on such member's behalf, where a Member is a company, the same may be signed by the chairperson of the Board of Directors of the Company or by its secretary, and where an association of person, by the secretary thereof.

27.2 The said proxy shall be deposited at the office of the Association Secretary at least 24 (twenty four) hours prior to the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting.

27.3 No instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid after the expiration of 12 (twelve) months calculated from the date of its execution.

28. VOTING

28.1 Subject to the provisions of clause 28.1.1 and 28.1.2 below, at every general meeting, the following provisions shall apply in regard to voting:

28.1.1 subject to the provisions of Clause 28.1.2, every Member in person or by proxy and entitled to vote shall have the number of votes for each Residential Erf registered in his name, as set out below, provided that if a Residential Erf is registered in more than one person's name, then they shall jointly have one vote;

28.1.2 in the event of two or more Residential Erven being consolidated, then the Member in question shall continue to have the same number of votes he held prior to consolidation, as if such consolidation had not taken place.

28.2 Save as expressly provided for herein, no person other than a member duly registered, and who shall have paid every levy and other sum (if any) which shall be due and payable to the Association in respect of or arising out of his membership, and who is not under suspension, shall be entitled to be present or to vote on any question, either personally or by proxy, at any general meeting.

28.3 At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands.

28.4 Voting on the election of a Chairperson of a general meeting (if necessary) or on any question of adjournment, shall be decided on a show of hands by a majority of the Members present in person or by proxy.

28.5 Every resolution and every amendment of a resolution proposed for adoption by a general meeting shall be seconded at the meeting and, if not seconded, shall be deemed not to have been proposed.

28.6 An ordinary resolution (that is a resolution other than a Special Resolution) shall be carried on a simple majority of all the votes cast thereon as provided for in clause 28.1 above. A Special Resolution shall be carried by a majority of no less than 75% (seventy five percent) of the total votes of Members who are present in person or represented and who are entitled to vote. An abstention shall not be counted as a vote for or against the resolution in question. In the case of an equality of votes, the Chairperson of the general meeting shall be entitled to a casting vote in addition to its deliberative vote.

28.7 Unless any Member present in person or by proxy at a general meeting shall before closure of the meeting have objected to any declaration made by the Chairperson of the meeting as to the result of any voting at the meeting, or to the propriety or validity of the procedure at such meeting, such declaration by the Chairperson shall be deemed to be a true and correct statement of the voting, and the meeting shall in all respects be deemed to have been properly and validly constituted and conducted, and an entry in the minutes to the effect that any motion has been carried or lost, with or without a record of the number of votes recorded in favour of or against such motion, shall be conclusive evidence of the vote so recorded if such entry conforms with the declaration made by the Chairperson of the meeting as to the result of any voting at the meeting.

29. MEMBERS ACTING OTHER THAN IN A MEETING

29.1 Save for the provisions of the Constitution, a Resolution that could be voted on at a General Meeting of Members may instead be –

29.1.1 submitted by the Trustees for consideration to the Members entitled to exercise their voting rights in relation to the Resolution; and 29.1.2 voted on in writing by such Members within a period of 10 days after the Resolution was submitted to them.

29.2 A Resolution contemplated in clause 29.1 –

29.2.1 will be seen as conducted in writing by members if it is in the form of electronic mail, facsimile, secure polling software or post; and

29.2.2 will have been adopted if it is supported by persons entitled to exercise sufficient voting rights for it to have been adopted as Resolution, as the case may be, at a properly constituted meeting of Members; and

29.2.3 if adopted, will have the same effect as if it had been approved by voting at a meeting.

29.3 Within 10 (ten) days after adopting a Resolution in terms of the provisions of this clause 29, the Association shall deliver a statement describing the results of the vote or election to every Member who was entitled to vote on or consent to it.

29.4 Any business of the Association that is required by this Constitution to be conducted at an Annual General Meeting, may not be conducted in the manner as set out in this clause 29.

29.5 Amendment of this Constitution can only be conducted as provided for in clause 35 and may not be conducted in the manner as set out in this clause 29.

30. ACCOUNTS

30.1 The association in general meeting or the Trustee Committee, may from time to time make reasonable conditions and regulations as to the time and manner of the inspection by the Members of the accounts and books of the Association, or any of them, and subject to such conditions and regulations, the accounts and books of the Association shall be open to the inspection of Members at all reasonable times during normal business hours.

30.2 At each Annual General Meeting the Trustee Committee shall lay before the Association a proper income and expenditure account for the preceding financial year of the association, or in the case of the first account, for the period since the incorporation of the Association, together with a proper balance sheet made up as at the last financial year end of the Association. Every such balance sheet shall be accompanied by proper and extensive reports of the Trustee Committee and the Auditors, and there shall be attached to the notice sent to Members convening each Annual General meeting, copies of such accounts, balance sheet and reports and of any other documents required by law to accompany the same.

31. AUDIT

At least once a year, the accounts of the Association shall be examined and the correctness of the income and expenditure account and balance sheets ascertained by the Auditors.

32. SERVICE OF NOTICES

32.1 A notice shall be in writing and shall be given or served by the Association upon any Member, by hand or by post in a prepaid registered letter or by electronic mail, properly addressed to the Member at the address of the Residential Erf owned by such member, or in the case of electronic mail, properly addressed to the last electronic mail address appointed in writing including by e-mail for such purposes by the member.

32.2 No Member shall be entitled to have a notice served on him at any address not within the Republic of South Africa, but any Member may require the Association, by notice, to record an address within the Republic of South Africa which shall be deemed to be his address for the purpose of the service of notices. The notice by the Member to change his address shall be in writing and addressed to the Association by way of pre-paid registered mail.

32.3 Any notice given by post shall be deemed to have been received within 5 (five) days from the date on which the letter was posted whereas a letter delivered by hand shall be deemed to have been received on the same date that it was delivered. Any notice by electronic mail shall be deemed to have been served at the time when the electronic mail was forwarded, and in proving the giving of the notice by electronic mail, it shall be sufficient to prove that the electronic mail containing the notice was properly addressed and forwarded.

- 32.4 The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice, shall not invalidate the proceedings of that meeting.

33. INDEMNITY

- 33.1 All Trustee members and the Auditors shall be indemnified out of the funds of the Association against any liabilities bona fide incurred by them in their respective said capacities and in the case of a Trustee Member, in his capacity as Chairperson, Vice-Chairperson, whether defending any proceedings, civil, criminal or otherwise, in which relief is granted to any such person/s by the court.
- 33.2 Every Trustee Member, every servant, agent and employee of the Association, and the Auditors shall be indemnified by the Association against (and it shall be the duty of the Trustee Committee expenses) which such person or persons may incur or become liable for by reason of any contract entered into, or any act or deed done, by such person or persons in the discharge of any of his/their respective duties, including in the case of a Trustee Member, his duties as Chairperson or Vice-Chairperson. Without prejudice to the generality of the above, the Association shall specifically indemnify every such person against all losses of whatsoever nature incurred arising out of any bona fide act, deed or letter done or written by him jointly or severally in connection with the discharge of his duties, provided that any such act, deed or letter has been done or written in good faith.
- 33.3 A Trustee Member shall not be liable for the acts, receipts, neglects or defaults of the Auditors or of any of the other Trustee Members, whether in their capacities as Trustee Members or as Chairperson or Vice-Chairperson, or for any loss or expense sustained or incurred by the Association through the insufficiency or deficiency of title or any property acquired by the Trustee Committee for or on behalf of the Association, or for the insufficiency or deficiency of any security in or upon which any of the monies of the Association shall be invested, or for any loss or damage arising from the insolvency or tortuous act of any person with whom any monies, securities or effects shall be deposited, or for any loss or damage occasioned by any error of judgement or oversight on his part, or for any other loss, damage or misfortune whatever which shall happen in the execution of any of the duties of his office/s or in relation thereto, unless the same shall happen through lack of bona fides or breach of duty or breach of trust.

34. ARBITRATION

- 34.1 Any dispute, question or difference arising at any time between Members or between Members and Trustees out of or in regard to:
- 34.1.1 any matters arising out of this Constitution; or
 - 34.1.2 the rights and duties of any of the parties mentioned in this Constitution; or
 - 34.1.3 the interpretation of this Constitution; shall be submitted to and decided by arbitration on notice given by any party to the other parties who are interested in the matter in question.
- 34.2 Notwithstanding clause 34.1, a party declaring a dispute in respect of payment of levies, is not obliged to refer the dispute to arbitration and may institute court proceedings.
- 34.3 Arbitration shall be held in Cape Town informally and otherwise in terms of the provisions of the Arbitration Act No 42 of 1965 (as amended or replaced from time to time) it being intended that if possible it shall be held and concluded within 21 (twenty one) Business Days after it has been demanded.
- 34.4 Save as otherwise specifically provided herein, the Arbitrator shall be, if the question in dispute is:
- 34.4.1 primarily an accounting matter – an independent accountant;
 - 34.4.2 primarily a legal matter – a practicing council or attorney of not less than 10 (ten) years' standing;
 - 34.4.3 any other matter – an independent and suitably qualified person appointed by the Auditors as may be agreed upon between the parties to the dispute.
- 34.5 If agreement cannot be reached on whether the question in dispute falls under sub – Clause 34.4.1, 34.4.2, 34.4.3, or upon a particular arbitrator in terms of sub-Clause 34.4, within 3 (three) Business Days after the arbitration has been demanded, then:
- 34.5.1 the President for the time being of the Law Society of the Cape of Good Hope (or its successors) shall determine whether the question in dispute falls under sub-Clause 34.4.1, 34.4.2 or 34.4.3; and / or
 - 34.5.2 the President for the time being of the Law Society of the Cape of Good Hope (or its successors) shall nominate the arbitrator in within 7 (seven) Business Days after the parties have failed to agree, so that the arbitration can be held and concluded as soon as possible within the 21 (twenty one) Business Days referred to in Clause 34.3.

- 34.6 The arbitrator shall make his award within 7 (seven) days after completion of the arbitration and shall in giving his award, have regard to the principles laid down in terms of the Constitution. The Arbitrator may determine that the cost of the arbitration may be paid either by one or other of the disputing parties or by the Association as he in his sole discretion may deem fit.
- 34.7 The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding and may be made an Order of the Cape of Good Hope Provincial Division of the High Court of South Africa (or its successors) upon the application of any party to the arbitration.
- 34.8 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the Trustees shall be entitled to institute legal proceedings on behalf of the Association by way of application, action or otherwise in any Court having jurisdiction for the purposes of restraining or interdicting breaches of any of the provisions.

35. AMENDMENTS TO CONSTITUTION

- 35.1 This constitution, or any part thereof, as contained herein shall not be replaced or amended, and no new clauses shall be made, save by a Special Resolution adopted at an Annual General Meeting or General Meeting of the Members.
- 35.2 Any alteration to clause 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, 11, 12, 36, 39 of the Constitution shall be subject to the prior written consent of the Council.
